ECHO 1993

Enfield High School
Enfield, Connecticut

Preface

We are the class of 1993 — the one hundredth class to graduate from Enfield High School. As the year draws to a close and graduation looms upon us, we remember all the times we've shared, the memories we've created during our time here. It is with sadness that we must say good-bye, but we will keep these memories in our hearts as we look to the future, our eyes filled with expectation. We will never forget the knowledge we've gained or the friendships we've made when we step out onto the road to tomorrow. And so we would like to wish all the best to the class of 1993.

DEDICATION

The class of 1993 is proud to dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Elizabeth Ogonis. Any student who has seen Mrs. Ogonis for a guidance problem or just needed someone to talk to knows how important she is to the students at Enfield High. Her popularity with the student body is a tribute to her hard work, her caring demeanor, and her dedication. Thank you, Mrs. Ogonis, for being there when we needed you.

In Memoriam

Mr. William Wenzel
Enfield High Guidance Counselor (1974-1992)

I remember Bill Wenzel as a man of hope, humanity and hospitality. His hope and his concern for his students is legendary. How much he cared. How much he believed in you. How much he delighted in your progress and your successes. You never had a better advocate than Mr. Wenzel.

And his humanity . . . As he would be the first to admit, "Tranquil" would not be an apt description of Bill. He could become agitated and let you know just how he felt. But two minutes later whatever it was had passed, and he was looking for reconciliation. And wondering what all the fuss was about.

Every once in a while he'd describe himself to me. "I don't fix things and I don't cook. I'm a people person," he would say emphatically, and add that, "I'm the luckiest guy in the world to be doing what I'm doing and to have what I have."

Raymond McGivney
